

Women of a Certain Age

A CONVERSATION ABOUT RELATIONSHIPS AND SEX
WITH WOMEN OVER 50

In conjunction with Women and Girls HIV/AIDS Awareness Day

At North Portland Branch Library

512 N. Killingsworth

February 28th

6-7:30PM

This presentation will provide participants with relevant information regarding risks, resources, and conversations about sex, sexuality and relationships for women over 50.

All are invited. Older and younger women are especially encouraged to attend.

Presented by: Jacki Gethner, LMT, CADCI

Jacki Gethner (LMT, Certified Drug & Alcohol counselor and Reiki Master) a resident of Portland, Oregon is a renowned international health advocate, activist and educator. Jacki's specialty is in the field of HIV/AIDS where she has worked in collaboration with many civic and government agencies, health educators, faith-based organizations and pharmaceutical companies. Jacki is recognized as a pioneer and seasoned healer in prevention and self-care of AIDS patients and vulnerable communities through the use of integrative therapies. Jacki was recently awarded a Bank of America Local Heroes award for her work educating women in Portland.

National Women and Girls HIV/AIDS Awareness Day is a nationwide observance coordinated by the Office on Women's Health \(OWH\), at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Its goal is to encourage people to take action in the fight against HIV/AIDS and raise awareness of its impact on women and girls.

Women of a Certain Age

is a Program of the Community Information Center.

For more information about Women of a Certain Age go to http://jackigethner.com/woca_peer_Edu.html or call (503) 790-0974